MEDICINAL.

The 8 Hour Day

Which the working man has fought for and succeeded in obtaining is something the wife has no share in. Her day begins before his and ends long after it, as a rule, and many a night her rest is broken by the baby's fretfulness. The healthiest woman must wear out under such a strain. What can be expected then of those women who are weakened by womanly diseases? Women who are weak, worn-out and run-down will find new life and new strength in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

$500 REWARD!
FOR WOMEN WHO CANNOT BE CURED.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States, for any case of Leucorrhea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

"I suffered with female weakness about eight years—tried several doctors but derived no benefit until I began using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. John Green, of Danville, Boyle Co., Ky. "This medicine was recommended to me by other patients. I have taken six bottles and I feel like another person."

Refuse all substitutes.
Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be used with "Favorite Prescription" whenever a laxative is required.

SQUADRON WITHDRAWN.

The Russian Black Sea squadron, which was ordered to Turkish waters and which arrived at Inada, eastern European Turkey, August 19, in order to support Russia's demands on the Sultan growing out of the assassination of M. Rostowski, Russian consul at Monastir, has been recalled to Sebastopol, the squadron's point of departure. The recall followed on a notification from the Porte that the Sultan had ordered all the Russian demands to be complied with.

News from Adrianople represents the situation in the vilayet as verging on a panic. The insurgents have destroyed telegraphic communication at several points between Adrianople and Kirk Kilise, 35 miles to the northeast, and have burned and pillaged several Greek and Mussulman villages, including Kavakli and Kisljii, southwest of Kirk Kilise. Troops have been dispatched to the environs of Adrianople.

Two sailing vessels crowded with Mussulman refugees from villages on the Black Sea coast have arrived at Kavak, at the entrance to the Bosphorus. A strong feeling prevails among the Mussulmans at Salonica and Monastir on account of the execution of M. Rostowski's murderers.

From eastern Adrianople come reports of more fighting, which so far appears to be resulting chiefly in favor of the revolutionists. After a long fight at Stolloro, the insurgents defeated a detachment of Turkish troops, which lost 20 killed and wounded.

At Chanasgasko, near Surovicovo, the insurgents are reported to have annihilated an entire Turkish regiment.

At Bulankzera, near Ternovo, 75 revolutionists are credited with defeating a Turkish battalion. The villages of Amdermis and Enrik, near Vasiliko, have been burned to ashes.

The Turks have bombarded and destroyed the Monastery of Constantine, near Losengrad, where 50 insurgents had fortified themselves. The villages of Bakdgi, Konakara, Evren, Dingisco and Brusheva have all been burned and their inhabitants have fled. The large village of Drumbeie, near Losengrad, has been burned by bashi-basouks. The villages of Buch, with 300 houses, and Rakoro, 200 houses, situated in the vilayet of Monastir, have also been burned by Turkish troops. Two hundred women and children from these villages are now begging in the streets of Monastir.

OHIO POLITICS.

The close contest between Mayor Tom L. Johnson, of Cleveland, Ohio, and John L. Zimmerman, of Springfield, for the gubernatorial nomination has caused more interest in the democratic State convention in Columbus this week than for many years. While both claim a majority, the result depends upon a settlement of contests involving 145 delegates. These contests are expected to prevent two congressional districts at Cincinnati and one at Cleveland from participating in the selection of members of the committee, so that the committee on credentials may be only 18 members voting on the first contest that is passed upon. With the custom of taking the contest up in alphabetical order, that of Cuyahoga county would come first, and it would likely be decided in favor of Johnson, so that there would be 19 voting on the contests from Gallia, Hamilton and other counties. Besides the six contested counties there are threats of throwing out the Erie, Clarke and Deane delegations for irregularities. The delegates will meet by congressional districts Tuesday afternoon, and the election of the committee on credentials Tuesday night is awaited with much anxiety. The preliminary contests extend to all parts of the organization of the convention. Johnson says he could not make the race on a Zimmerman platform and Zimmerman says he could not run on a Johnson platform, so both are seeking a majority of the committee on resolutions. There is a close watch on the committee on rules and order of business, as Johnson wants John W. Bookwalter endorsed for United States senator before the State ticket is named, while Zimmerman wants the senatorial endorsement to come after State nominations, if such endorsement is made at all.

A dispatch from Springfield says that John W. Bookwalter, recognized as the Johnson candidate for United States Senator, last night gave out the following: "Much pleased and gratified as I am at the mention of my name in connection with the nomination for United States Senator by the democratic State convention this week, and much as I appreciate the honor and the compliment which my friends seek to pay me, I feel it but a matter of justice to my fellow-democrats of the State to say that I am not a candidate for such nomination, and my name will not be presented to the convention for its consideration."

STRIKERS KILLED IN RIOT.—A law legalizing strikes is in preparation in St. Petersburg. A general strike began August 20 at Enketerinovsk. The troops who were summoned to restore order met with a hostile reception, but dispersed the crowd after firing a few shots. Next day the tramway and railroad traffic was stopped; the newspapers did not appear and the factories were surrounded by troops. Thousands of strikers gathered in the market place and a collision with the military occurred. Eleven strikers were killed and 12 wounded before order was restored. Before evening the street cars resumed and work was started again in some private workshops.

It is again rumored that Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria may abdicate as King of Hungary.
